men to occupy Taranto, Brindisi, and all tl ports of the peninsula beyond the line Tarantc

27th. (To the Emperor of Russia.) The pri rogance of the English are unparalleled. I together, as Your Majesty appears to wish, i gunboats in the ports of Flanders, where I will army. I have given orders for concentrating in Brittany that can be put on board ship at I

The English have attempted to land in Ej interest of all the Mediterranean and Black Ses that Egypt should remain in the possession < The Suez canal, which would join the Indian O< Mediterranean is already surveyed; the wo: and will not take long, it will confer incalcul fits on Russian commerce.

March 1st. Lafayette is an obstinate politi maniac; he cannot understand me; I regret it, ; is an honest man. I wanted to make him Sena fused. Let him go his own way then, I can.get < him.

4th. There shall be held in Paris, each year, tion of the products of French industry.

£0th. Do you know why I allow such free in the Council of State? It's because I 'm the b< all in an argument. I let them attack me becai how to defend myself.